26 JURISDICTION & VENUE:

27 18. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the action pursuant to 28
28 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1343(a)(3) & (a)(4) for violations of the Americans with

1 Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq.

2 19. Pursuant to supplemental jurisdiction, an attendant and related cause 3 of action, arising from the same nucleus of operative facts and arising out of 4 the same transactions, is also brought under California's Unruh Civil Rights
5 Act, which act expressly incorporates the Americans with Disabilities Act.

6 20. Venue is proper in this court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331(b) and is 7 founded on the fact that the real property which is the subject of this action is 8 located in this district and that Plaintiff's cause of action arose in this district.

10 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS:

11 21. Plaintiff has gone to the Restaurant on a number of occasions during the 12 relevant statutory period, including March 2015, May 2016, August 2016 and 13 September 2016. Plaintiff went there to eat.

14 22. The Restaurant is a facility open to the public, a place of public 15 accommodation, and a business establishment.

16 23. Parking spaces are one of the facilities, privileges, and advantages
17 offered by Defendants to patrons of the Restaurant.

18 24. Unfortunately, the parking lot serving the Restaurant is not van 19 accessible.

20 25. The parking space marked and reserved for persons with disabilities
21 measured 107 inches in width while the access aisle measured just 65 inches
22 in width. This is not van accessible.

23 26. Although Defendants offered accessible parking spaces, they failed to 24 maintain these accessible parking spaces in compliance with the Americans
25 with Disabilities Act Accessibility Guidelines (ADAAG).

26 27. On information and belief, plaintiff alleges that a van-accessible parking space used to be in the parking lot.

28 28. The defendants have either paved over the van-accessible parking space

1 or they have allowed it to fade beyond recognition.

2 29. The parking space did not have the required tow-away signage.

3 30. Defendants had no policy or procedure in place to maintain their 4 parking spaces so that they remained complaint and useable by persons with 5 disabilities.

6 31. Currently, Defendants fail to maintain these accessible parking spaces
7 in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act Accessibility
8 Guidelines (ADAAG).

9 32. Currently, the parking space does not have the required tow-away
10 signage.

11 33. Currently, Defendants have no policy or procedure in place to maintain 12 their parking spaces so that they remain complaint and useable by persons with 13 disabilities.

14 34. The barriers existed during each of plaintiff's visits in 2015 and 2016.

15 35. The plaintiff frequents the Concord area and has visited there on scores
16 of occasions last year and this year. He ate at the Restaurant in March 2015
17 and August 2016 and encountered the barriers. He visited the Restaurant on 18 two other occasions but was deterred from going inside.

19 36. Plaintiff visited the Restaurant once in March 2015.

20 37. Plaintiff visited the Restaurant once in May 2016.

21 38. Plaintiff visited the Restaurant once in August 2016.

22 39. Plaintiff visited the Restaurant once in September 2016.

23 40. These barriers caused Plaintiff great difficulty and frustration.

24 41. Plaintiff would like to return and patronize the Restaurant but will be 25 deterred from visiting until the defendants cure the violations.

26 42. The defendants have failed to maintain in working and useable 27 conditions those features required to provide ready access to persons with 28 disabilities.

1 43. The violations identified above are easily removed without much
2 difficulty or expense. They are the types of barriers identified by the 3 Department of Justice as presumably readily achievable to remove and, in fact,
4 these barriers are readily achievable to remove. Moreover, there are numerous 5 alternative accommodations that could be made to provide a greater level of 6 access if complete removal were not achievable.

7 44. Plaintiff is and has been deterred from returning and patronizing the 8 Restaurant because of his knowledge of the illegal barriers that exist. Plaintiff 9 will, nonetheless, return to assess ongoing compliance with the ADA and will 10 return to patronize the Restaurant as a customer once the barriers are 11 removed.

12 45. Given the obvious and blatant violation, the plaintiff alleges, on 13 information and belief, that there are other violations and barriers on the site
14 that relate to his disability. Plaintiff will amend the complaint, to provide 15 proper notice regarding the scope of this lawsuit, once he conducts a site
16 inspection. However, please be on notice that the plaintiff seeks to have all
17 barriers related to his disability remedied. See Doran v. 7-11, 524 F.3d 1034
18 (9th Cir. 2008) (holding that once a plaintiff encounters one barrier at a site, 19 he can sue to have all barriers that relate to his disability removed regardless of 20 whether he personally encountered them).

21 46. Additionally, on information and belief, the plaintiff alleges that the 22 failure to remove these barriers was intentional because: (1) these particular 23 barriers are intuitive and obvious; (2) the defendants exercised control and 24 dominion over the conditions at this location and, therefore, the lack of 25 accessible facilities was not an “accident” because had the defendants 26 intended any other configuration, they had the means and ability to make the 27 change.

1 I. FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE AMERICANS
2 WITH DISABILITIES ACT OF 1990 (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all
3 Defendants.) (42 U.S.C. section 12101, et seq.)

4 47. Plaintiff re-pleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
5 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 6 complaint.

7 48. Under the ADA, it is an act of discrimination to fail to ensure that the 8 privileges, advantages, accommodations, facilities, goods and services of any 9 place of public accommodation is offered on a full and equal basis by anyone
10 who owns, leases, or operates a place of public accommodation. See 42 U.S.C.
11 § 12182(a). Discrimination is defined, inter alia, as follows:

- 12 a. A failure to make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, 13 or procedures, when such modifications are necessary to afford
14 goods, services, facilities, privileges, advantages, or 15 accommodations to individuals with disabilities, unless the 16 accommodation would work a fundamental alteration of those 17 services and facilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(ii).
- 18 b. A failure to remove architectural barriers where such removal is 19 readily achievable. 42 U.S.C. § 12182(b)(2)(A)(iv). Barriers are 20 defined by reference to the ADAAG, found at 28 C.F.R., Part 36,
21 Appendix "D."
- 22 c. A failure to make alterations in such a manner that, to the 23 maximum extent feasible, the altered portions of the facility are 24 readily accessible to and usable by individuals with disabilities, 25 including individuals who use wheelchairs or to ensure that, to the 26 maximum extent feasible, the path of travel to the altered area and 27 the bathrooms, telephones, and drinking fountains serving the 28 altered area, are readily accessible to and usable by individuals

1 with disabilities. 42 U.S.C. § 12183(a)(2).

2 49. Any business that provides parking spaces must provide accessible
 3 parking spaces. 1991 Standards § 4.1.2(5); 2010 Standards § 208. One in 4 every eight of those accessible parking spaces but not less than one must be a 5 “van” accessible parking space, i.e., having an eight foot access aisle. 1991
 6 Standards § 4.1.2(5)(b). Under the 2010 Standards, one in every six accessible
 7 parking spaces must be van accessible. 2010 Standards § 208.2.4.

8 50. Here, the lack of a van-accessible parking space is a violation of the law.

9 51. Any business that provides parking spaces must provide accessible
 10 parking spaces. 1991 Standards § 4.1.2(5); 2010 Standards § 208. To qualify 11 as a reserved handicap parking space, the space must be properly marked and 12 designated. Under the ADA, the method, color of marking, and length of the 13 parking space are to be addressed by state or local laws or regulations. See 36
 14 C.F.R., Part 1191, § 502.3.3. Under the California Building Code, to properly
 15 and effectively reserve a parking space for persons with disabilities, each 16 parking space must be at least 216 inches in length. CBC § 11B-502.2. The 17 access aisle must extend the full length of the parking spaces it serves. 2010
 18 Standards § 502.3.2. Under the California Building Code, a sign must be 19 posted in a conspicuous place at the entrance to the parking lot or immediately 20 adjacent to each handicap parking space, with lettering 1 inch in height, that 21 clearly and conspicuously warn that unauthorized vehicles parking in the 22 handicap parking spaces can be towed at the owner’s expense. CBC §
 23 1129B.4. The surface of the access aisle must have a blue border. CBC §
 24 1129B.3. The words “NO PARKING” in letters at least a foot high must be 25 painted on the access aisle. Id.

26 52. Here, Defendants failed to post the required tow-away signs, in violation 27 of the ADA.

28 53. A public accommodation must maintain in operable working condition

1 those features of its facilities and equipment that are required to be readily
 2 accessible to and usable by persons with disabilities. 28 C.F.R. § 36.211(a).

3 54. Here, the failure to ensure that the accessible facilities were available
 4 and ready to be used by the plaintiff is a violation of the law.

5 55. Given its location and options, plaintiff will continue to desire to 6 patronize this Restaurant but he has been and will continue to be 7 discriminated against due to the lack of accessible facilities and, therefore,
 8 seeks injunctive relief to remove the barriers.

10 II. SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: VIOLATION OF THE UNRUH CIVIL 11 RIGHTS ACT (On behalf of Plaintiff and against all Defendants.) (Cal. Civ.
 12 Code § 51-53.)

13 56. Plaintiff re-pleads and incorporates by reference, as if fully set forth
 14 again herein, the allegations contained in all prior paragraphs of this 15 complaint.

16 57. Because the defendants violated the plaintiff's rights under the ADA, 17 they also violated the Unruh Civil Rights Act and are liable for damages. (Cal.
 18 Civ. Code § 51(f), 52(a).)

19 58. Because the violation of the Unruh Civil Rights Act resulted in difficulty, 20 discomfort or embarrassment for the plaintiff, the defendants are also each 21 responsible for statutory damages, i.e., a civil penalty. (Cal. Civ. Code § 22 55.56(a)-(c).)

23 59. Although the plaintiff was markedly frustrated by facing discriminatory 24 barriers and this frustration possibly qualifies as an emotional distress injury, 25 even manifesting itself with minor and fleeting physical symptoms, the 26 plaintiff does not value this very modest frustration and physical personal 27 injury greater than the amount of the statutory damages.
 28

1 PRAYER:

2 Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that this Court award damages and provide 3 relief as follows:

4 1. For injunctive relief, compelling Defendants to comply with the 5 Americans with Disabilities Act and the Unruh Civil Rights Act. Note: the 6 plaintiff is not invoking section 55 of the California Civil Code and is not 7 seeking injunctive relief under the Disabled Persons Act at all.

8 2. Damages under the Unruh Civil Rights Act, which provides for actual 9 damages and a statutory minimum of $4,000.

10 3. Reasonable attorney fees, litigation expenses and costs of suit, pursuant 11 to 42 U.S.C. § 12205; and Cal. Civ. Code §§ 52.
